

American Indian PowWow Morning Star Celebration

14th Annual Benefit for St. Labré Indian School

All are Welcome to Celebrate American Indian Culture
Music, Dance, Food, Art and Crafts

Saturday, January 11, 2014

John Carroll School in Bel Air, Maryland

Doors Open at 10 a.m

Master of Ceremonies ~ Dennis Zotigh

1 p.m.~Grand Entry~1 p.m.

Special Presentation by Benji Head Swift and St. Labre Student Dancers and Drum Group

Suggested Donation for Admission is $5 per adult and $2 per child.
Proceeds benefit St. Labré Indian School in Ashland, Montana.

Schedule

10:15	Pipes and Pipe Bags Presentation
11:15	Native American Flute
12:00	Gourd Dancing
1:00	Grand Entry
4:00	"The Dog & Pony Show" folk music
	Dinner Break - "feed" for dancers, drums
5:30	Evening Dancing Resumes

Staff

Arena Director	Ted Severe
Head Man Dancer	Larry Gantz
Head Lady Dancer	Cherie Germer
Host Drum/Southern Drum	Jon Orens, Head Singer
Invited Drums/Northern Drum	Youghtanund, Black Horse Butte, White Buffalo Singers, Southern Heart, Medicine Horse

Drums by invitation only, please!

~Traders~ Please contact Linda Coates at 410-885-2800

For more information contact Gary Scholl 410-838-8333 ex. 2002 or at glsjcs@yahoo.com. Directions:
From I-95: Exit 85 then follow Route 22 to Bel Air. John Carroll School is on the left as you enter Bel Air. Find us at morningstarpowwow.com